Moss & Barnett's family law team is pleased to be a Gold Sponsor of the 2022 AFCC-MN Annual Conference – A hybrid event with both live and virtual attendance options.

Please join AFCC-MN for a special 2-day event, July 28-29, 2022! For our Annual Conference, we are teaming with Overcoming Barriers to present "What To Do When a Child Resists or Rejects a Parent: Building a Tool-Kit for Professionals." Some of the most difficult cases we face occur when a child resists or refuses to spend time with a parent. As we've learned, "conventional wisdom" about how to handle these cases typically does not work. This program provides an overview of what makes these cases different, and why they can be so challenging. It is designed to help attorneys, clinicians, judicial officers, and ADR providers learn how to work with these families, and with one another, more effectively when these difficult family dynamics are present.

Presenters are a multidisciplinary team, including a judicial officer, an attorney, and a clinician, who use a variety of teaching methods, including immersive break-out sessions, designed to help participants develop professional "tool-kits" to manage these difficult cases.
