Moss & Barnett's family law team is pleased to be a Gold Sponsor of the 2023 AFCC-MN Annual Conference: "Unlocking your implicit biases: What are you really bringing to the table?" – An event with both live and virtual attendance options.

Learning Objectives:

After participating in this conference, attendees should be able to...

1. Identify personal biases and critically assess how they influence our decision-making process in family law matters.
2. Apply one's lived experiences to better assist families while maintaining clear ethical boundaries consistent with your role (e.g., advocate, mental health professional, judicial officer, neutral, etc.).
3. Analyze how value judgments can drive parenting disputes.
4. Craft parenting plans that recognize and address value judgment differences between parents.
5. Formulate a strategy to promote effective co-parenting despite differences in personal value systems.
