

Moss & Barnett is Pleased to Sponsor Accountants' Liability 2018

Accountants' Liability 2018 Presented by ALI-CLE, Renaissance Washington, DC Downtown Hotel, Washington, D.C.
10.18.2018

Come see why this course is the annual event for professionals from across the nation. Updated each year to stay ahead of the curve, this course gives varying perspectives on the changing laws, principles, and attitudes shaping the field of accountants' liability today from an unparalleled faculty panel of esteemed practitioners, general counsel from accounting firms, and SEC and PCAOB government officials.

What You Will Learn

Take advantage of this opportunity to learn from experts, including government and in-house speakers, and enjoy ample opportunities to network with fellow practitioners and preeminent faculty.

Topics of discussion include:

- Insights on SEC enforcement and SEC investigatory initiatives
- Practical strategies for dealing with whistleblowers
- Best practices when working with experts
- Key PCAOB perspectives
- Developments on the horizon and trends in audit-based litigation including filings data, settlement, and more!

Who Should Attend

This course is designed for attorneys, accountants, and in-house counsel and legal staff with accounting firms.

Moss & Barnett is Pleased to Sponsor Accountants' Liability 2018 from Moss & Barnett

Attorneys

Charles E. Jones

Taylor D. Sztainer

Practice Areas

Professional Liability

