

James J. Vedder Selected for Admission to the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

10.18.2013

Moss & Barnett is pleased to announce that James J. Vedder has been selected for admission to the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML). The AAML was founded in 1962, "to provide leadership that promotes the highest degree of professionalism and excellence in the practice of family law." AAML Fellows are recognized by judges and attorneys as preeminent family law practitioners with a high level of knowledge, skill, and integrity.

Jim is a member of Moss & Barnett's family law team and assists clients in all aspects of family law, including the resolution and settlement of the division of marital and non marital assets, spousal maintenance, child support, and custody issues. Jim received his J.D. from Hamline University School of Law and his B.A. from the University of Minnesota.

"This is a distinctive and well-deserved achievement, and we offer our congratulations to Jim for his admission as an Academy Fellow," said Moss & Barnett President and CEO, Tom Shroyer.
