

Todd J. Anlauf Elected to Board of Directors of the Minnesota Chapter of Lambda Alpha International (LAI) Land Economics Society

10.01.2023

Todd J. Anlauf has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Minnesota Chapter of Lambda Alpha International (LAI) Land Economics Society. LAI is an invite-only global network with over 2,000 professionals in all fields related to land economics and the use and development of land. Members engage in discussion and debate about land use, economic, and business issues that matter to Minnesota. The Minnesota Chapter offers thought-provoking programs and activities with top speakers, relevant forums, and networking events. Todd will serve a two-year term.

Todd represents national financial institutions, including life insurance companies, in their commercial real estate lending investments. He negotiates, structures, documents, and closes complex transactions, including multiple property portfolio loans, multiple jurisdiction portfolio loans, and leasehold financing transactions. Todd has broad experience handling complex loans for a full range of properties, including multifamily, hotel, office, industrial, retail, medical office buildings, medical facilities, golf courses, marinas, and commercial condominiums.
