

Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights

Our bankruptcy and creditors' rights group provides nationwide transactional and litigation services to financially troubled entities, secured lenders, trustees, receivers, unsecured creditors, official creditor and equity securityholder committees, landlords, buyers and sellers of assets, lessors, lessees, investors and insurers, among others, in the following settings:

- Chapter 11 reorganization cases
- Chapter 7 liquidation cases
- Out-of-court loan restructurings and "work-outs"
- Asset recovery and foreclosure
- Debtor/creditor litigation in federal and state courts
- Receiverships and assignments for the benefit of creditors
- Dissolutions and winding-up of business entities

We combine decades of legal experience, a relentless commitment to excellence and a profound concern for clients so that we may best attack even the most intractable problems.

Our Background

Chapter 11 cases:

- Participated in the successful confirmed plans of reorganization for businesses in the following industries: retail store chains; chain of franchised restaurants; commercial transportation, including rail and motor carriers; hardware stores; apartment complexes; industrial manufacturing; and hospitality
- Participated in the sale of substantially all of the debtor's assets in the following industries: industrial production; apartment complexes; motor carriers; retail sales chains; strip mall owners; golf courses; healthcare; railways; communications; and steel and foundries
- Obtained critical vendor status for clients
- Handled requests for treatment of public utility claims on behalf of creditors
- Handled assumption and rejection of commercial leases and executory contracts
- Handled cases related to protection of intellectual property licensed to the debtor
