Overview

Matt became interested in litigation while studying business management and entrepreneurship in college. He understands how legal issues can affect a company's bottom line. Matt listens to his clients' wishes and expectations, and then takes it upon himself to exceed them.

As a member of the firm's Transportation and Logistics Service Group, Matt represents diverse business entities in civil litigation, including motor carriers, manufacturers, retailers, distributors and insurers. He has a successful track record representing both Fortune 500 companies and small businesses in state and federal court with respect to cases that involve a variety of matters at issue, from contract disputes to tort defense.
