Overview

Chris identifies the problem, then finds the solution. His approach to litigation has led to multiple successful results early in his legal career. It starts and ends with preparation. Recognized for his diligence, persistence, and sound judgment, from the pleading stage through appeal, Chris is a sought-after member for trial teams.

Focusing in general defense litigation, Chris handles diverse cases encompassing class action, employment, business tort, insurance, civil and constitutional rights, and complex tort matters. He is experienced in various aspects of e-discovery including leading teams of outside vendors in voluminous document review, production, and archiving.
