ASSOCIATE

Overview

Jonathan believes his job is to help put issues his clients face in the rear-view mirror. His goal is to give his clients the freedom to pursue their endeavors by putting their legal concerns at ease.

As a member of the firm's Construction Service Group, Jonathan assists clients in all aspects of construction law, including mechanic's lien foreclosure and breach of contract. He regularly works with contractors who are looking to expand their business, while staying on top of the legal issues they may face.

Outside of the office, you can find Jonathan enjoying the many activities Chicago has to offer, from dining at a new restaurant to a concert in the park.
