Overview

Katie's extensive experience and calm demeanor allow her to navigate the most difficult transactions, always with her clients' goals in mind. Katie focuses her practice on mergers and acquisitions, commercial real estate, and general corporate work.

In her M&A practice, Katie represents both buyers and sellers who are considering or engaging in the process of transitioning their company. She advises clients with respect to letters of intent, CDAs/NDAs, due diligence, definitive purchase agreements (stock or asset transactions), purchase price allocations, warranties and representations, indemnification (baskets, caps, etc.) and other challenging topics, including family dynamics.

Beyond M&A, Katie serves as a trusted adviser to her clients. She provides sophisticated yet understandable advice in all areas of real estate and business law, including contracts, financing, franchising, leasing, easements, and all commercial real estate matters. Finally, Katie also has a passion for working with charitable organizations. Katie is able to simplify the process of working with the Internal Revenue Service and the state, helping organizations obtain the desirable 501(c)(3) status in order to serve the greater community.
