Overview

Kristin's clients describe her as meticulous and passionate. She takes pride in identifying potential legal issues before they arise in order to provide a comprehensive litigation strategy to her clients.

As a member of the General Liability Service Group, Kristin represents businesses, insurance companies, contractors, property owners, and transportation companies. She applies her understanding of litigation and dispute resolution techniques to achieve the best results for her clients. Before joining Amundsen Davis, she previously worked as a plaintiff's attorney, which gives her a unique and valuable perspective into strategies and goals of the opposition.

Outside of the office, Kristin enjoys spending time with friends and family and traveling to and exploring new places with her husband.
