Overview

Kyle treats each matter that comes across his desk with empathy and care – that’s what his clients appreciate about him.

As a member of the Real Estate, Zoning & Public Finance Service Group, he represents clients who face contract issues and roadblocks in real estate development. He also negotiates on behalf of his clients in matters involving liens and lease agreements.

When Kyle isn’t spending time with his son, he is an avid hockey fan, playing in a men’s league at his local rink. He is also passionate about animals, rescuing and fostering dogs over the years.
