

Lisa Dolajeck

Appleton, WI

920-750-5053 | ldolajeck@amundsendavislaw.com

PARALEGAL

Overview

When clients find themselves faced with complex state and federal litigation, Lisa shines in her adeptness in assisting with multifaceted challenges.

Lisa serves a crucial role in supporting the firm's Litigation Service Group through her proficiency in case management and attention to detail. Her experience encompasses a broad spectrum of complex litigation matters, demonstrating her commitment to delivering top-notch legal services to our clients.

When she's not excelling at the office, Lisa generously dedicates her spare time to community service by volunteering for Community Benefit Tree, Inc. where she served as President of the Board of Directors for three years. Her commitment to giving back reflects the values upheld at Amundsen Davis, where excellence extends not only within the legal realm but also in making a positive impact on the community.

SERVICES

Business Litigation

Employment Litigation

EDUCATION

Marian University, B.B.A., 2005

Western Wisconsin Technical
College, A.S., 1999