Overview

Tina was inspired to become a lawyer to honor her mom's legacy, making sure to follow the values of justice, integrity, and helping others. Tina's goal was to pursue a career where she could make a meaningful impact and advocate for her clients.

As a member of the firm's Business Litigation Service Group, Tina advises clients on complex matters including bad faith insurance claims, breach of contract disputes, and liability arising from commercial transactions. She is also a member of the firm's Cryptocurrency, Blockchain and FinTech Service Group, helping clients understand the growing importance of digital assets within the legal landscape.

Before Tina joined AD, she worked at the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office as a law clerk, collaborating closely with assistant prosecuting attorneys and gaining first-hand exposure to the justice system. An important lesson she learned from her time as a law clerk is that appearances can be deceiving and it's crucial to reserve judgment until the full picture is clear.

Outside of the office, Tina is an experienced pianist. This pursuit sharpened her attention to detail, allowing her to approach cases with creativity, precision, and a nuanced understanding of complex issues.
