

Assessing New Risks Under the Union Friendly “PRO Act” & Biden’s NLRB

Illinois Chamber of Commerce, Webcast
April 15, 2021 | 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM

This year the Protecting the Right to Organize Act (PRO Act) was reintroduced to Congress and it is a priority to the Biden Administration. The PRO Act seeks to overhaul the National Labor Relations Act and make it easier for unions to organize more employees, remove most restrictions on union strikes, weaken employers’ ability to resist unionization and give massive fines to employers who violate the law.

Join Jeff Risch for this timely 90-minute webcast as he helps employers navigate the current state of labor relations, learn how to proactively manage the workplace and understand National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) initiatives under the Biden administration.
