

Protecting Your Customer Relationships and Competitively Sensitive Information in Illinois

Illinois Chamber of Commerce, Webinar
December 5, 2018 | 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Restrictive covenants, also known as “non-competes,” are important tools. If used properly, they can protect your company’s customer relationships and confidential information. Unfortunately, there are many misconceptions about these contracts.

During this Illinois Chamber of Commerce webinar Jeff Glass will provide guidance on non-compete agreements, including:

- How to draft a non-complete agreement for maximum protection
- How to handle hiring someone who is subject to a non-complete
- How to roll out non-competes in your existing workforce
- Non-compete issues that arise when a company acquires another company
- How to handle the departure of an employee who is subject to a non-compete
- Litigation of non-compete agreements, including emergency injunctions
- And more
