

Illinois' Right to Work Law Ban and What it Means

Webcast

March 8, 2022

Event Sponsor: Illinois Chamber of Commerce

10:30 am - 12:00 pm CT

In the November 2022 election, Illinois voters will be deciding if the Illinois Constitution should be amended to allow labor unions to permanently require forced union membership in the private sector, and ensure that whatever a public sector union is able to secure at the bargaining table, no state law or local ordinance could ever modify. Please join Jeff Risch as he explains the proposed amendment, and helps public and private employers prepare for the future.

PROFESSIONALS

Jeffrey A. Risch
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Labor, Employment, Benefits
& Immigration

Public Sector

Staffing Agency, Independent
Contractor & Contingent
Workforce

Traditional Labor & Union
Relations