

Mandatory Vaccines and Other Options for Employers During this Year's Cold & Flu Season

Rockford Chamber of Commerce, Webcast
January 13, 2021 | 8:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Employers need to continue to take action necessary to reasonably protect the health and safety of their employees, customers and vendors. The anticipated release of a COVID-19 vaccine raises the question of whether employers can mandate employees receive it and the implications for employers of imposing such a requirement.

Join Jeff Risch for this virtual event hosted by the Rockford Chamber of Commerce as he discusses key laws and developing local, state and federal guidance in helping employers navigate stormy waters in these trying times. Attendees will be able to engage in small group virtual networking, gain real business connections and receive a key understanding of laws regarding the new COVID-19 vaccine.
