

To Pee or Not to Pee -- Workplace Dynamics and the Opioid Epidemic

USLAW Employment & Labor Law Exchange; Dallas, TX
May 1, 2018

Employers are overwhelmed by the effects of opioid medication (both legally prescribed and unlawfully obtained) in the workforce. Is your workplace prepared to navigate the impact of the opioid epidemic? Are your policies tailored to address the epidemic?

As the opioid epidemic becomes more publicized, and blame for the epidemic focuses more on drug manufacturers and less on addicts, this engaging discussion featuring co-presenter Julie Proscia, will delve into issues employers find themselves facing with increasing frequency.

PROFESSIONALS

Julie A. Proscia
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Employment Advice &
Counsel