

Breakfast with the Bar

Speaking Engagement

Indianapolis Bar Association, Seminar; Indianapolis, IN February 8, 2024

IndyBar's Law Student Division hosted its second Breakfast with the Bar of the spring semester with the discussion centered around the practice of Business Law. Keith Mundrick was invited to join the panel and share advice regarding the importance of client relationships. The panelists also discussed what led them to their particular practice areas and what motivates them in their careers.

The panel encouraged law students to remain open minded to different projects and experiences to allow you to find what area of practice you can find purpose and enjoyment. Panelists discusses the importance of networking and how cultivating those relationships can propel you in your future career.
