In January, Illinois legislature passed The Illinois Paid Leave for All Workers Act (PLFAW). The PLFAW makes Illinois the third state to pass a law mandating paid leave for employees for any reason. The law will go into effect on January 1, 2024 and employers need to start reviewing their current policies before the changes need to be made.

Join Julie Proscia for this informative webcast as she addresses questions about how these changes will significantly impact how you conduct business and help you develop a game plan for how to implement these changes into your current policies and procedures.
