

Counseled Client With Multiple Serious OSHA Citations

Amundsen Davis counseled a food processing facility when an OSHA inspection revealed our client's failure to adhere to guarding and lockout/tagout standards. Multiple serious citations were issued, but due to our post-incident training and abatement efforts, and the discovery of new facts related to the inspection, several citations were dropped and fines were significantly reduced at the informal conference stage.

PROFESSIONALS

Matthew Horn
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

OSHA