

Helped to Revise and Implement a Record Retention Program

Amundsen Davis assisted in the revision and implementation of a record retention program for multi-state nursing, rehabilitation, and retirement facility. This work consisted of creating a record retention program for multiple facilities across twelve states. The facilities operated by the company maintained different types of electronic medical records and were subject to different state laws, and therefore, our team developed a record retention program that applied to all facilities, across all states.

PROFESSIONALS

Molly A. Arranz
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Cybersecurity & Data Privacy