

Obtained Dismissal With Prejudice on Behalf of its Branding Company Defendant

Amundsen Davis obtained dismissal with prejudice in Cook County, IL on behalf of its branding company defendant. The defendant submitted an affidavit along with its motion to dismiss attesting to the fact that it did not own, operate, manage, or control the subject premises on which the plaintiff alleged there was a defective condition. The court, ruling solely on the motion to dismiss and no other briefs, granted the motion and dismissed the plaintiff's negligence cause of action with prejudice.
