

Obtained Preliminary and Permanent Injunction for a Financial Institution in Enforcement of Covenant Not to Compete

Debra Mastrian obtained preliminary and permanent injunction for a financial institution in enforcement of covenant not to compete. She successfully obtained entry of a preliminary and permanent injunction, opposed removal of the matter to federal court, was awarded fees for various reasons, and successfully defended appeals at both state and federal level in a contentious lawsuit involving a former employee.

PROFESSIONALS

Debra A. Mastrian
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Banking & Finance

Employment Advice &
Counsel

Labor, Employment &
Immigration