

Obtained Summary Judgment for an Investment Company Client in an Enforcement Action

Debra Mastrian obtained summary judgment for an investment company client in an enforcement action against personal guarantor relating to promissory notes - after contentious discovery, motion practice and hearings, filed for and obtained summary judgment against personal guarantor. She successfully defended against the personal guarantor's statute of limitations defense by establishing that debt was revived when the personal guarantor made subsequent payments on the notes.

PROFESSIONALS

Debra A. Mastrian
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Banking & Finance