

Obtained Summary Judgment on Behalf of a Governmental Entity and Obtained a Favorable Settlement for the Co-Defendant in a Serious Injury Case

Gerald Rohrer obtained summary judgment on behalf of a governmental entity and then went to trial on behalf of the co-defendant. The case involved serious injury to an iron worker performing restoration work on a sewage treatment facility. Plaintiff's attorney initiated final settlement negotiations just prior to opening statements to the jury and the matter was settled on favorable terms to the defendant.
