

Secured a Summary Judgment in Wrongful Death Matters on Behalf of a Government Agency After Two Employees of a Subcontractor Died of Oxygen Deficiency

Gerald Rohrer secured summary judgment in wrongful death matters on behalf of a government agency responsible for wastewater and stormwater management in Illinois in a case wherein two employees of a subcontractor died of oxygen deficiency while working in a manhole.

PROFESSIONALS

Gerald T. Rohrer, Jr.
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Construction