

Successfully Defended a Client Against an Objection to Appointment as PR Based on Undue Influence and Incapacity of the Testator

We successfully moved to dismiss an objection from a decedent's daughter at a contested hearing following discovery. The decedent's daughter objected to the probate of a will leaving all assets to client's charitable corporate entity based on undue influence allegedly exerted by client and lack of capacity of the decedent.

PROFESSIONALS

Aaron E. Hall
Partner

Andrew C. MacDonald
Senior Counsel

Jessica L. Puetz
Associate

RELATED SERVICES

Fiduciary, Trust & Probate
Litigation