

Successfully Represented a Moving Company After a Left Turn Accident with a Box Truck

Amundsen Davis represented a moving company where the plaintiff made a $750,000.00 demand following a left turn accident with our box truck. The plaintiff claimed a TBI aggravated her MS symptoms. We got her to admit that her TBI resolved after only a few months and it did not exacerbate her MS. Case settled at mediation for $152,500.00. The settlement value was one fifth of the demand.
