

Low Bricker named Chair of USLAW NETWORK

USLAW NETWORK, INC
September 23, 2016

Low Bricker was recently named as the Chair of the USLAW NETWORK for 2016-2017. USLAW NETWORK is an international organization of 100 independent full-service law firms. Low states, "As 2016 marks USLAW's 15th year of dedicated service to our clients, I am especially eager to expand upon the client-centered approach and programming established by USLAW leadership and membership by continuing to diversify the resources, services, and opportunities we deliver to our entire NETWORK and clients."

Low has been a member of the organization's board since 2009, has been an Executive Committee member since 2013, and has held multiple leadership roles including: vice chair (2016) and treasurer (2013-2015). In 2008, Low received the O'Hagan award for service to USLAW NETWORK.
