The Chicago Bar Association (CBA), in conjunction with several local bar associations, hosted its 2018 Vanguard Awards luncheon on Tuesday, April 24, 2018.

The award luncheon has been presented since 1998 by the Chicago Bar Association and honors lawyers, judges, and institutions in the Chicago area that have made the legal profession more accessible to and reflective of the community they serve.

Among the honorees was Gary Zhao, partner in our Chicago office, who was honored by the Chinese American Bar Association of Greater Chicago along with the CBA. Congratulations to Gary!
