Michael McGrory was recently quoted in Grown In, The Cannabis Industry Newsletter's recent article titled "40 Acres and a Mule Holding Company Files Dozens of Illinois Cannabis License Applications." The article discusses how 40 Acres and a Mule Holding Company is tackling the challenges of obtaining an Illinois cannabis dispensary license. "It sounds like they are trying to find a way to leverage the social equity advantages of the law, and combine it with the institutional know-how that larger cannabis operators have developed," Mike said.
