

Diversity and Inclusion in the International Trade Focused Legal Profession: Why It is More Than Just What You Can See!

Publication

InterPacific Bar Association Journal

June 2022

"In a shifting and more diverse geometrical and geopolitical business environment, representation of diverse perspectives is a very important factor."

In Ngosong Fonkem's article, "Diversity and Inclusion in the International Trade Focused Legal Profession: Why It is More Than Just What You Can See!" published by the InterPacific Bar Association Journal, he discusses the importance of diversity in all companies and professions. He goes more into detail on the lack of diversity in the legal profession and specifically why it is so necessary in international trade-focused legal practice.
