Alan has more than 30 years of experience representing clients in high-profile, complex international trade regulatory matters, including trade litigation involving public and government relations issues. In addition to being chair of the firm's International Trade Practice, he heads the firm's antidumping and countervailing duty practice. He also counsels clients on bilateral and multilateral agreements, trade legislation, customs regulation, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) compliance issues, escape clause investigations, and World Trade Organization (WTO) dispute resolution. Regularly rated by Chambers USA as one of the nation's "Leading Lawyers" in his field, Alan "gets solid results consistently" (2016) and is commended for his "big-picture oriented approach" (2014). Clients have described him as "attentive, responsive and insightful" (Chambers USA 2017) and as "a 'go to' lawyer" who is "knowledgeable, efficient and client focused" (The Legal 500 US 2013).
