

Kathleen Cooperstein

Special Counsel

202.719.4043

kcooperstein@wiley.law

Kathleen represents corporations, directors, and other individuals in government investigations and white collar defense. Her experience includes matters involving internal investigations, the False Claims Act (FCA), Anti-Kickback Statute, and health care fraud in both criminal and civil matters. She supports her clients at every stage of litigation from grand jury proceedings to appeals to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Kathleen previously served as a trial attorney in the U.S. Department of Justice's Criminal Section Health Care Fraud Unit.

Representative Matters

- Defended clients in civil and criminal matters with a focus on the False Claims Act and other fraud investigations/litigations.
- Litigated extensive attorney-client privilege issues in the context of corporate counsel conducting internal investigations.
- Conducted internal investigations to advise clients on potential civil and criminal liability, assist in mandatory disclosures, and negotiate resolutions with government parties.

Professional Experience

- Trial Attorney, Department of Justice, Criminal Division (2019-2023)
- White Collar Defense Associate, Private Law Practice (2013-2019)

Practice Areas

White Collar Defense & Government Investigations

Credentials

Education

J.D., Yale Law School

B.A., summa cum laude, Virginia Polytechnic and State University

Law Journals

External Managing Editor, Yale Journal of Law and Humanities

Clerkships

Law Clerk for the Honorable Charles Lettow, U.S. Court of Federal Claims (2012-2013)

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

Virginia Bar