Wiley Rein Government Contracts Boot Camp Series: "Recent Developments in Subcontracting" Webinar

---

Online Webinar
September 26, 2012

This Boot Camp will cover new FAR and DFARS flowdown clauses, including commercial item subcontracts, executive compensation, data rights, and personal conflicts of interest requirements; recent efforts by OFCCP to boost affirmative action hires among contractors and the implications these policy changes have for a prime contractor's determination of whether an agreement constitutes a "subcontract" under relevant regulations; and changes to small business subcontracting requirements resulting from the Small Business Jobs Act and corresponding updates to the FAR.
