

MEDIA MENTION

Tim Brightbill Discusses Critical Circumstances Allegations Regarding Solar Import Surges from Vietnam and Thailand

Bloomberg, Inside U.S. Trade, Solar Power World, E&E News, Renewable Now, Renewable Energy World, PVTech
August 20, 2024

Timothy C. Brightbill, co-chair of Wiley's International Trade Practice, was quoted by several media outlets in coverage of critical circumstances allegations filed by The American Alliance for Solar Manufacturing Trade Committee with the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding surges of solar imports from Vietnam and Thailand. Brightbill is the lead attorney representing the Alliance. Recent coverage includes:

- Solar Panel Makers Seek Retroactive Duties, Citing Import Surge

August 15, 2024 | Bloomberg

- Solar industry alleges 'critical circumstances' in Vietnam, Thailand cases

August 15, 2024 | Inside U.S. Trade

- Citing recent surge in imports, American solar panel makers petition government for immediate relief

August 15, 2024 | Solar Power World

- Solar manufacturers seek retroactive duties following Vietnam, Thailand import surge

August 16, 2024 | E&E News

Related Professionals

Timothy C. Brightbill
Partner
202.719.3138
tbrightbill@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Antidumping and Countervailing Duties/
Trade Remedy Cases
International Trade

- US solar makers make filing over import spikes from Vietnam, Thailand

August 16, 2024 | Renewables Now

- American manufacturers argue solar imports injuring industry, file critical circumstances allegations

August 19, 2024 | Renewable Energy World

- US manufacturers seek retroactive tariffs on SEA solar import 'surge'

August 20, 2024 | PVTech