

NEWSLETTER

Coordinated Communication Alert

September 2010

We are now within the pre-2010 general election window applicable to certain coordinated communications. This means that targeted corporate and nonprofit public communications, including mailings of more than 500 pieces and ads placed on an Internet website for a fee, may not be coordinated with any featured candidate, the candidate's opponent, a campaign committee, a political party committee or any of their agents.