

Mark Renaud Testifies before Congress Regarding Draft Executive Order on Political Contributions by Government Contractors

July 2011

On May 12, Election Law & Government Ethics Practice partner Mark Renaud testified at a joint hearing of the House Committee on Small Business and the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform regarding a draft executive order that would require government contractors to report their political contributions.

Click here to view Mr. Renaud's House testimony in opposition to the president's proposed executive order.

Click here to view the written testimony submitted by Mr. Renaud.

Mr. Renaud can be reached at 202.719.7405 or mrenaud@wiley.law.