

Wiley Rein & Fielding Congratulates Thomas Griffith on His Confirmation to the U.S. Court of Appeals

June 21, 2005

Washington, DC - Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP congratulates its former partner Thomas B. Griffith on his recent confirmation to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. The lifetime appointment to the federal court caps a distinguished career in both the private and public sectors.

WRF managing partner Richard E. Wiley commented, "We are enormously pleased and proud that our friend and former colleague Tom Griffith has been elevated to the D.C. Circuit. He will be a terrific addition to a distinguished court."

Griffith, who was a member of the firm's White Collar Defense and Litigation practices, left the firm in the mid 1990's to serve as the Senate's legal counsel, where he played an active role in a wide array of Senate investigations as well as the impeachment trial of President Clinton. Griffith briefly resumed his private practice at WRF for a time before assuming his most recent post as general counsel at his alma mater, Brigham Young University, in 2000.

Practice Areas

Civil Fraud, False Claims, Qui Tam and Whistleblower Actions
Congressional Investigations and Oversight
Criminal Investigations and Prosecutions
Internal Investigations and Compliance Programs
Litigation
White Collar Defense & Government Investigations