Wiley Rein's Timothy Brightbill, Charles Lemley, and Scott McCaleb Receive Law360 "MVP" Recognition

November 19, 2014

Three Wiley Rein lawyers—more than ever before—were recognized as “legal aces” in Law360's “MVP” awards announcement today.

Partners Timothy C. Brightbill in the International Trade Practice, Charles C. Lemley in the Insurance Group, and Scott M. McCaleb in the Government Contracts Practice were each named to the publication's annual and highly competitive “MVP” list of top lawyers nationwide for their respective practice areas.

Law360 reported that competition for the “MVP” distinction was “fiercer than ever” this year, with editors reviewing more than 800 submissions to achieve a list of winners. The 2014 class of Law360 “MVPs” includes 171 attorneys from 78 firms spanning 29 practice areas.

Feature stories on each of the Wiley Rein attorneys and their recent achievements will appear in the coming weeks in Law360.
