

PRESS RELEASE

Laura El-Sabaawi to Moderate WHTC Policy Discussion on Tech, Trade, and Tariffs

September 18, 2018

Press Contact

Patricia O'Connell
T: 202.719.4532
poconnell@wiley.law

Washington, DC—Laura El-Sabaawi, partner in Wiley Rein's leading International Trade Practice, will moderate a Women's High-Tech Coalition (WHTC) event – "Tech, Trade & Tariffs: A Policy Discussion" – on September 25 from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., in Wiley Rein's Main Conference Center at 1776 K Street NW in Washington.

The complimentary reception, hosted by the WHTC and The Women's High-Tech Caucus, will feature panel speakers Sarah Babbage, Legislative Analyst at Bloomberg Government; Christin Fernandez, vice president for communications at Retail Industry Leaders Association; Bijou Mgbojikwe, intellectual property policy counsel at the Entertainment Software Association; and Julie Stitzel, managing director of Chamber Technology Engagement Center at the U.S Chamber of Commerce.

Ms. El-Sabaawi represents clients in a variety of international trade matters, including antidumping and countervailing duty cases, other trade remedy investigations, and export controls compliance programs. Wiley Rein's International Trade Practice, recognized by Chambers USA as one of the country's elite international trade practices, advises clients in domestic and international trade regulation matters, market access issues, and dispute resolution.

Related Professionals

Megan L. Brown
Partner
202.719.7579
mbrown@wiley.law
Laura El-Sabaawi
Partner
202.719.7042
lel-sabaawi@wiley.law

Practice Areas

International Trade
Telecom, Media & Technology

Megan L. Brown, a cybersecurity authority and partner in Wiley Rein’s Telecom, Media & Technology Practice, is also a WHTC board member and has participated in prior events, including “Lawyering in Tech – A Discussion with Women General Counsels” in April 2018.

The WHTC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, nonpartisan organization founded in 2000 that promotes the exchange of ideas among leaders in the public and private sectors whose focus is technology, innovation, and the development of public policy related to technology.