

PRESS RELEASE

Wiley Honored by Washington Business Journal for Commitment to DC Community

June 18, 2024

Washington, DC – Wiley Rein LLP was the only law firm to be named one of the top “midsized” companies for corporate philanthropy by the Washington Business Journal.

For the third year in a row, Wiley was ranked among the top “midsized” companies for corporate philanthropy in the greater DC area. This year, Wiley ranked eighth in a list of the top 16 “midsized” companies, a category that includes companies in the region with 100 to 999 employees. Wiley was honored for its commitment to the DC community at the 2024 Corporate Philanthropy Awards luncheon on June 6.

The Washington Business Journal’s “Corporate Philanthropy” list honors businesses that are the region’s most active and inspirational companies and nonprofits that have made a difference in their communities through philanthropic work in the greater Washington area.

Wiley prides itself on a strong tradition of service to our local and global community and encourages local advocacy in a number of ways, including through pro bono work, annual fundraisers, and other community service events.