Wiley Reelects Peter D. Shields as Managing Partner; Firm Announces Results of Executive Committee and Management Committee Elections

January 9, 2024

Washington, DC – Wiley is pleased to announce that Peter D. Shields has been reelected as Managing Partner for his fifth consecutive term. The firm also announced the elections of Dorthula H. Powell-Woodson and Michael E. Toner to its Executive Committee (EC) and Daniel B. Hassett and Hon. Nazak Nikakhtar to its Management Committee (MC). All of those elected to firm leadership will serve a three-year term, effective January 1, 2024.

“I am honored to be reappointed as the firm’s Managing Partner and grateful for the trust our partners have in our management team. The last three years brought unprecedented challenges to our industry, and as a firm, we found innovative ways to stay competitive, provide exceptional client service, and increase our profitability,” said Shields. “I look forward to collaborating with the Executive and Management Committees to build on this growth trajectory, while continuing to bring unparalleled service to our clients.”

As Managing Partner, Shields is responsible for the firm’s overall management, strategic development, and implementation of innovative approaches to enhance superior client service, value billing, operational efficiencies, and tactical growth. Shields is active in leadership roles in the DC legal and civic communities, including serving as a longtime leader of the Board of Directors for N Street Village.
