

PRESS RELEASE

Wiley Rein LLP Statement on the Selection of Commissioner Brendan Carr as FCC Chairman

November 18, 2024

Wiley Rein LLP issued the following statement regarding the selection of Commissioner Brendan Carr as the next Chairman of the Federal Communications Commission:

"Wiley congratulates our former colleague Brendan Carr on his selection by President-Elect Trump as the next Chairman of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Commissioner Carr is an experienced leader who has developed deep expertise in the telecom, media, and technology sectors, both during his tenure at the FCC and while in private practice. We are confident he will lead the agency in modernizing communications policies and fostering investment in the industries we serve, to the benefit of the American people. We look forward to our continued work with Commissioner Carr and his team on behalf of our clients."