Washington, DC—Wiley Rein Pro Bono Partner Theodore A. Howard was elected to the District of Columbia Bar's Board of Governors for a three-year term, one of five appointments made to the Board, as announced earlier this month by the D.C. Bar after its annual elections were held. The D.C. Bar is governed by a Board of Governors composed of 20 lawyers selected by the active membership, and three members of the public appointed by the Board itself as nonvoting members. In addition to advising and assisting the President of the Bar with respect to policy matters, the Board of Governors also serves as the Board of Directors for the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center.

All newly elected officers, board members, and delegates to the D.C. Bar will take office during the 2016 Celebration of Leadership: The D.C. Bar Awards Dinner and Annual Meeting at 7 p.m. on June 15 at the Mayflower Hotel, 1127 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, DC.

Mr. Howard is Wiley Rein's first full-time Pro Bono Partner, a position in which he oversees the firm's pro bono activities and initiatives, and fosters relationships with the public interest legal services community. In 2015, he received the prestigious Wiley A. Branton Award for his exceptional pro bono efforts from the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs. Prior to his appointment
