

Wiley Rein's Scott Delacourt, Scott McCaleb, and Alan Price Receive Law360 'MVP' Recognition

November 9, 2015

Three Wiley Rein LLP lawyers were recognized today as "legal aces" by Law360 in the publication's annual "MVP" national awards list. Alan H. Price, chair of the International Trade Practice, and partners Scott D. Delacourt in the Telecom, Media & Technology Practice and Scott M. McCaleb in the Government Contracts Practice were each named to the highly competitive list of top lawyers for their respective practice areas. Mr. McCaleb has made the Government Contracts MVP list for two years in a row.

The winners earned a spot on this year's list for their successes in high-stakes litigation, record-breaking deals, and complex global matters.

Law360 reported that competition for the MVP distinction "continued to escalate" this year, with editors reviewing more than 850 submissions to achieve a list of the winners. The 2015 class of Law360 MVPs includes 189 attorneys from a record 86 firms spanning 31 practice areas.

Feature stories on each of the Wiley Rein attorneys and their recent achievements will appear in the coming weeks in Law360.
