

Outsmarting Cyber Scammers: A Look Into Anti-Cybersquatting Litigation

Wiley Connected
June 30, 2022

In this podcast, Wiley partners Attison L. Barnes, III and David E. Weslow pull from their combined decades of experience for an in-depth discussion of cybersquatting and related Internet and digital media scams. Since the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, business impersonation scams have increased 85%, and 95% of the 500 most popular websites are subject to impersonation. As scammers become more sophisticated, so have remedies and courses of action to combat this dynamic issue. Join us as we discuss the inception of the 1999 Federal Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act (ACPA) and its applications, the forms and evolution of cyber scams, and the future of anti-cybersquatting litigation.

Related Professionals

Attison L. Barnes, III
Partner
202.719.7385
abarnes@wiley.law

David E. Weslow
Partner
202.719.7525
dweslow@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Cybersquatting & Internet IP
Litigation