

A Conversation with FEC Commissioner Shana Broussard

Political Law Podcast

June 22, 2022

On this episode, Wiley partner Lee Goodman sits down for a one-on-one with Federal Election Commission (FEC) Commissioner Shana Broussard to discuss her background and distinguished years of public service. Listen as Commissioner Broussard candidly describes her experience stepping into her role of commissioner in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, highlights bipartisan efforts to clear the FEC's backlog of cases during her time as Chair, and looks ahead at what's next for the FEC in view of a new, incoming Commissioner and the upcoming 2022 midterm elections.

Related Professionals

Lee E. Goodman
Partner
202.719.7378
lgoodman@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Election Law & Government Ethics
Federal Election Commission
Representation